

1. Coordinates of the Applicant
Name, academic titles
Affiliation (work address, phone number, email address, website, ORCID account etc.)
Birth date, Nationality
2. Scientific CV
Academic education (undergraduate and graduate studies incl. Universities/Faculties, date of DVM/PhD graduation....)
3. Employment
Professional experience in teaching and research (incl. graduate student supervision, project grants...)
Academic activities (e.g. in scientific/editorial boards, memberships in academic societies....)
Awards
.....
4. Publications and patents
(incl. Thesis, peer-reviewed publications, conference contributions etc.; order by year starting with the latest publications; highlighting your name). If publication lists are very long, limit to the last five years

Please note:

- You may use any other style for your CV as well but the information listed above should be contained.
- The publication list is not strictly a part of the CV; it can be provided separately.